

MANY NEW VOTERS FOR THE ELECTION

Registration Rolls in Salt Lake Are Increased Over 20 Per Cent.

A RELIGIOUS CANVASS MADE

"American" Workers List Newcomers As "Mormons" or Members Of Their Party.

Yesterday's registration gave some indication of the way Salt Lake is growing. From the copious depths of the "American" barrel the Snyder money and the fees collected from city employees, and all the other money in sight was turned into automobiles and rigs with which the "American" city committee labored to get the newly arrived voters out to the polls.

Poor thousand seven hundred and fifty-eight voters registered. As there were only 21,828 voters previously registered in the entire city, this raised the voting limit by 20 per cent, a phenomenal increase. But a large percentage of these are changes, and old voters will have dropped out to a number sufficient to decrease, perhaps, by half the number of new voters.

The "American" canvass, a religious one, classifies voters into "Mormons" and "Americans" and every effort is being made to make the religious test a line of political cleavage. By proper manipulation of the "gentle" vote the Dunbar inner circle of the "American" party hopes to perpetuate itself, and will make its signs to the city as years go by.

The result of yesterday's registration, with the Sixteenth and Twenty-second districts estimated, are as follows:

WITH THE POLITICIANS.

The fusion movement in the First ward, by which the Democrats and Republicans have combined on a common ticket, has been the subject of much discussion. The object of preventing an "American" council majority of inner-circle devotees, was definitely brought about last night. J. D. McRae, Republican, and Oliver Hodgson, Democrat, remain on the tickets, while Andrew J. Smith and Herbert L. Penrose withdrew.

In the Second ward fusion is being talked, but definite action has not yet been taken. The prospect of Bradford, without a plant city council is not pleasing to the "American" inner circle, whose interest is that of the holder of financial position, anxious to fix its own power on the administration. Hoping to control its candidate for mayor, except through the council, the inner circle looks upon fusion as a dark look upon the coming of cold weather, and it is not nature taking to say that this kind of weather gets the birds decidedly going south.

The "News" has been requested to furnish an answer to the question concerning the following letter. "As the 'News' is a non-partisan paper, and therefore all information in relation to political affairs in its columns can be implicitly relied upon, I take the liberty of asking for the information of myself and others, that you state the number of votes polled for each party in the city election of 1906. The results were: Morris (D.), 7,500; Lynch (R.), 4,800; and Thompson (A.), 4,500, with a scattering Socialist vote. One year ago in the county election the Salt Lake City Republican votes outnumbered the Democratic, the Republican total being 7,650, and the Democratic, 4,638.

PATRIARCH JOSHUA MIDGLEY.

White-haired pioneers, friends of fifty years' standing, and little children, helped to celebrate the seventy-fifth birthday anniversary of Patriarch Joshua Midgley at his home, 245 Fifth East street, Tuesday evening. The guests varied in age from more than 80 years to less than one year.

The old home was well filled with friends when dinner was served at 7 o'clock. The evening was passed with music and congratulatory speeches, most of which dealt with interesting phases of pioneer life in Utah that had been witnessed by Mr. Midgley and his older friends.

The guests included Bishop George Romney and family, Bishop and Mrs.

CUT IN BARROOM FIGHT.

Bartender Gets Black Eye in Attempting to Restore Peace.

John Fowle, aged 30 years, was severely cut by Paul Slenick, aged 21 years, during a barroom fight, at 9 o'clock last night. The trouble occurred in an Austrian saloon, 231 west South Temple street. The two men had been mixed up in trouble before and last night resumed the wrangle and then began to fight. The bartender attempted to restore order and emerged from the fracas with a blackened eye while Fowle received several cuts from a knife used by Slenick. Both were placed under arrest.

CAPTURED THE "DIP."

Intended Victim of Pickpocket Turns Tables on Would-be Robber.

George Gordon, an alleged "dip" or pickpocket, was caught about 6 o'clock last night at the Federal bar on Commercial street by the proprietor of the place, James E. Williamson, who claims he was Gordon's intended victim.

According to Williamson, while in his place of business Sunday, he felt some one searching his pocket and then felt a hand trying to lift a watch from the chain. Williamson waited a moment and then suddenly turned on the "dip" and knocked him to the floor. He claims the man was Gordon. The latter made his escape and kept out of sight until last evening when he appeared at the saloon and was promptly seized by Williamson. There was a lively tussle but the saloon man got the better of Gordon and took him to police headquarters.

LOCALS STILL HOLD OUT.

Salt Lake Telegraphers to Send Delegation to Milwaukee.

The convention of Commercial Telegraphers called to meet at Milwaukee, Oct. 23, will be attended by a delegate from the Salt Lake union. Who will go will be decided at a meeting of the local union called for tonight at the headquarters in Harmonie hall.

Since the discrediting of President Small in Chicago the executive committee of the telegraphers have been busy bolstering up the strike in the hope that it can be kept up another month, if necessary. For that reason the locals have all been requested to send one delegate to a special convention to meet Oct. 23 at Milwaukee, and Salt Lake will respond by selecting a man to go at tonight's meeting. Of the 60 men who struck only 14 are now in Salt Lake, out of employment and sentiment among them is unanimous against returning to work until conditions are bettered. Special assistance has been given to the company by furnishing typewriting machines, and put men on the regular salary list instead of keeping so many on the extra list.

Wallace Monroe, manager of Louis James, is in the city in advance of that of the company. He says Mr. James is meeting with astonishing success during his present tour, rendering the two Shakespearean productions, "The Comedy of Errors" and "The Merry Wives of Windsor." In the first named Mr. James essays the task of enacting the twin brothers, something that has not been attempted by any other actor of late years. His changes of character are said to be something on the order of the wonderful. In the other piece, he will, of course, enact his favorite role of Sir John Falstaff. Mr. James' dates in Salt Lake begin next Thursday evening, the 24th.

SMALL CATCH OF SEALS.

Victoria, B. C., Oct. 16.—The sealing schooner "Kings" Mary has returned from the Alaska coast and Bering sea with 744 skins. She reports that the other Japanese schooners in Bering sea will average from 100 to 300 skins. On Sept. 6 the schooner experienced submarine earthquakes for a period of 24 hours. One shock was so severe that it was feared the craft would go to pieces.

DEFINITE MOVE ON FOOD TRUST

Farmers and Fruit Growers to Deal Direct With the People.

OTHER CITIES ARE TROUBLED.

Denver is Wondering What to Do While Seattle Introduces Municipal Competition.

At last something definite is coming of the recent agitation over the prevailing high price of living. The wholesale combination and the jobber combination and the retail combination that took enough profit out of a 50 cent bushel of Brigham city apples to make it cost the Salt Lake consumer $2, is to be fought with the one weapon at hand—the re-opening of long forgotten channels of competition.

Next Saturday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock a convention of farmers and orchardists will meet in the City and County building to discuss marketing crops and orchard products without the help of the commission man, independent of the combine of jobbers, and not through the retail store with its contract to deal only with the jobber who deals only with the commission man, who deals only with the farmer and pays him whatever he will.

The farmers are coming together because they see a chance to form a new combination directly with the people, and shut out the other combinations, who they think forcing to leave good enough alone, and squeezed the market a little too hard for everybody concerned, especially the farmers who didn't like the discrepancy between what they were getting and the retailers were charging at the other end of the combine.

WILL OPPOSE HIGH LICENSES.

Among other things the new organization will take up the matter of licenses imposed to discriminate against the stocker and the peddler of milk as well as of farm products. It will also plan to open a co-operative market here to compete directly with the retailers for public trade, and may establish a minimum rate that commission men will have to pay to handle their goods.

TROUBLE ELSEWHERE.

The sister cities of Salt Lake are all facing the food combine just as this city is. Some of them have also reached the stage of striking back with some available weapon. Especially is this so in Seattle, while Denver is just a little behind Salt Lake in that the exposure of existing conditions are just being made there. In Seattle the municipal fight against the combine by throwing public land open free to farm wagons, is reported to be a great success. More than that a municipal lighting plant has made such a success of eight cent electricity that it is ready to announce a still further reduction, and the private companies are being driven from their 15 cent rate everywhere within the city limits. It refused to budge from this rate although all means of persuasion were exhausted before the competition was established by the municipality.

IN SAN FRANCISCO.

In San Francisco a new anti-trust law is being rigorously enforced, and the papers there chronicle reductions of 20 and 25 per cent in many commodities as a direct and immediate result.

In Denver the meat markets and the grocery stores are being given the overhauling that Salt Lake gave what is do. San Francisco went to the legislature for a new and drastic law. Seattle took up municipal competition, and Portland followed suit. What the outcome in Salt Lake will be from the grand jury investigation it is still too early to tell, but the proposed meeting of farmers on Saturday suggests a field of interest. What the outcome in which the farmers believe that both themselves and the public will profit.

THE GRAND JURY.

Salt Lake is the only city in the west to look to the grand jury for a remedy. Denver has not yet decided what to do. San Francisco went to the legislature for a new and drastic law. Seattle took up municipal competition, and Portland followed suit. What the outcome in Salt Lake will be from the grand jury investigation it is still too early to tell, but the proposed meeting of farmers on Saturday suggests a field of interest. What the outcome in which the farmers believe that both themselves and the public will profit.

reban Rangel and Julio Nieto. With them were arrested two women accomplices, Catrina Mendez and Vincenta Reyes.

It was through a confession made by Modesta Santillan, who had once been a servant for the Rose family, that the murders were apprehended. The woman divulged to the robbers the exact lay of the premises and the location of the rooms, making their entry into the sleeping apartments of Mr. and Mrs. Rose easy.

LIBRARY LEAGUE ASSURED SUCCESS

Delegates Return Home Enthused

Over Outlook for the Future.

MANY TOWNS WILL ACT.

Representatives Will Organize Local Associations With Backing of Central Committees.

As the result of yesterday afternoon's convention to discuss a state library league, every delegate returned to his home town last night pledged to organize a local society to work upon a library and gymnasium plan.

The convention was an enthusiastic one, and Chairman Howard Briggs, who delivered the principal address, was assured after it had adjourned, that the movement would be given every possible support by the towns represented. Delegates from the following places spoke so favorably that movements are expected to bring definite results within the next few months: Salina, American Fork, Cedar, Kanosh, Heber City, Coalville, Mant, Forest Dale and Garland.

INSPECT LIBRARIES.

Before leaving for home the delegates were shown by Secy. Cox of the Y. M. C. A. through its magnificent state street headquarters, and also through the Packard library building. They were greatly impressed with the success each is achieving in its way.

COMMITTEE PLAN.

The immediate plan of the central committee is to appoint a sub-committee on gymnasiums, another on libraries, and another on libraries, and from these sub-committees to furnish information for the use of local associations in working up plans for their home towns. The hope of the association is to get a library and gymnasium in every small Utah town, for the benefit of the neglected boy, who, it is thought, can best be reached in this manner. A large number of delegates who could not be present have asked for a report on what was done, and the proceedings of yesterday's convention will be sent out for general distribution over the state.

ANOTHER "FLAG RUSH."

Sophs and Freshies at University Engage in Mixup.

The second "flag rush" of the season at the University of Utah occurred yesterday afternoon, and for a time a portion of the campus furnished as much activity as a disturbed hill, as student stumbled over student in a struggle for supremacy. The trouble was between sophomores and freshmen, and started in the drawing room where the freshmen had put up a placard bearing their number. A sophomore seized the offending piece of paper and fled, but was caught, and soon the mixup between members of the two classes became general.

Later the freshmen hoisted their flag on the campus flag pole, and as daring sophomores appeared to attempt to take it down, they were seized and tied to the pole. A number of sophomores turned the hose upon their opponents, but the hose burst inside the building, and the basement of the library was flooded. A number of the faculty took a hand in the game, caused hostilities to cease and the flag was lowered by one of the class that put it up.
